

Would you rather go forward ten years or back five years?

Would you rather eat five pounds of nachos or five pounds of spaghetti?

Would you rather bathe in macaroni and cheese or banana pudding?

Would you rather sleep in a luxury igloo or a luxury treehouse?

Would you rather fight a shark or a bear?

Would you rather have a cat with a human face or a dog with human hands?

Would you rather have no taste buds or no sense of smell?

Would you rather have your parents or your coaches have access to your social media?

Would you rather have a pause button or a rewind button for your life?

Would you rather have the time to read 100 books or watch 100 movies?
