

WFCA state tournament @ Eau Claire
Impromptu - semifinal sayings around the world

There's an old Afghan saying, "One slap hurts twenty faces."

There's an old French saying, "Communities begin by building their kitchen."

There's an old Ashanti saying, "It is not an easy manner to speak face to face with an elder."

There's an old Roman saying, "Many meet the gods, but few salute them."

There's an old Zanzibari saying, "The fish caught in the net starts to think."

There's an old Spanish saying, "Do not tell your secrets behind a wall or a hedge."

There's an old Dutch saying, "He who builds according to everyone's advice will have a crooked house."

There's an old Surinamese saying, "He who has fine clothes should also have shabby ones."

There's an old Yiddish saying, "One's best friend is in the mirror."

There's an old Chinese saying, "He that is afraid to shake the dice will never throw a six."

There's an old Dutch saying, "He that can sit upon a stone and feed himself should not move."

There's an old Irish saying, "A full cabin is better than an empty castle."

There's an old Bornean saying, "In the land where there are no eagles, the sparrow pretends he is an eagle."

There's an old Italian saying, "He who knows the most believes the least."